

We protected you from the many calamities predicted to occur during 2012, and we feel good about that. However, some if not all of those calamities may simply have been postponed until 2013. To provide you with continued protection: 1) print this page, 2) clip black square, 3) carry with you at least as much as 2012 version.

Remember, we are pretty sure this thing works. So relax and enjoy your year.
